II. MARKET REVIEW

a. Bond Market: 2014 - 15

The year 2014 was a reasonably good year for Indian Bonds. As global growth stumbled, commodity prices, especially crude oil prices eased by over 50%. These manifested in disinflationary trends in many economies around the world.

However, the Indian economy witnessed a dramatic improvement in its key macro-economic indicators due to a combination of lower oil prices and favourable monetary and fiscal policies. While CPI inflation eased from high double digit figures in 2013 to a low of 4.5-5%, India's Current Account Deficit declined to around 1.5% of GDP - down from a high of around 4-5% of GDP in 2013.

In response to improving macro-variables and a decisive outcome in the 2014 national elections, the benchmark 10-year government bond yield declined by around 100 basis points (bps) in the second half of 2014 to around 7.80%. Amid falling commodity prices, improving current account deficit, healthy macro-economic backdrop and strong FII inflows, the RBI began its monetary easing cycle in January 2015 by reducing the Repo rate by 25 bps. Since then it has further cut the Repo Rate by an additional 25 bps in March 2015.

Globally, the growth prospects remained elusive and deflationary headwinds gathered strength in the second-half of 2014. In the US, although the US Federal Reserve ('FED') had wrapped up its $85 billion-a-month bond buying program in October 2014, expectations of the FED lift-off in interest rates were further delayed from the earlier expectations of Q4 of 2014 to Q4 of 2015 due to the fragile and uneven nature of the economic recovery. The Bank of England, which was likely to be the first major central bank to hike rates, had to delay its rate hiking decision amid spread of deflationary headwinds due to falling crude oil prices. Both the ECB and Bank of Japan (BOJ), in particular, had prepared themselves for more monetary stimulus to offset the FED's taper of the bond buying program. As a result, there was ample liquidity in the financial markets, the consequence of which continued to be felt via low bond yields in major global markets. Nearly 28 central banks had cut rates starting January 2015 till mid March 2015 to fight deflationary headwinds.

India had emerged as one of the few bright spots in the world in the last year in terms of economic growth prospects. Higher nominal yields, decisive election outcome, stable currency as well as improving macro-economic parameters had resulted in healthy FII inflows in 2014. The FII's invested around $27 billion in Indian debt in 2014. They have invested an additional $7 billion in the first three months of 2015.

Local investors also benefitted from declining interest rates in India. After experiencing outflows in the first six months of FY2015, fixed income mutual funds started receiving inflows in the second-half of FY2015 as investors returned to duration funds to take advantage of a potential decline in bond yields. Institutional investors were seen investing in gilt funds and duration funds while retail investors preferred to invest in Short Term Funds and Credit Funds.

b. Equity Market: 2014 - 15

2014 proved to be a good year for India in more ways than one with the BSE Sensex Index up +26.81% (INR terms), +21.89% (USD) during the period from April 1, 2014 to March 31, 2015. The historic outcome of the May 2014 elections, with the BJP-led NDA winning by a majority, led to a strong uptrend in Indian equity markets. Steps taken to contain inflation, FDI in railways, construction and defense, coal and telecom spectrum auctions, clearing of stalled projects (that could help revive the investment cycle) are some of the key reforms announced by the government in the first year since taking office. Land Acquisition and GST bills will be the next big reforms that the markets will watch out for. While 2015 also started on a strong note, the Sensex Index gave up all its gains and corrected almost 10% from its March 2015 high. The correction could be attributed largely to the global bond sell-off on expectations of a FED rate hike earlier than expected.

III. INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES & PERFORMANCE OF THE SCHEMES

Investment Objectives, one year and since inception performance vis-à-vis its benchmarks, closing Assets under Management ('AuM') as on March 31, 2015 for all Fixed Maturity Plans, Fixed Term Plans and Dual Advantage Funds are given in Annexure IB to this Report.

IV. BRIEF COMMENTARY ON ONE YEAR AND SINCE INCEPTION SCHEME PERFORMANCE

- DSP BLACKROCK SMALL AND MID CAP FUND: The scheme outperformed its benchmark (CNX Midcap Index) over the last financial year. The outperformance was mainly due to the scheme's stock selection. The sector positions which added to relative performance were overweight positions in consumer discretionary, industrials and financials, along with stock specific underweight positions in utilities and energy sectors. The scheme also outperformed its benchmark since inception.
- DSP BLACKROCK TAX SAVER FUND: The scheme outperformed its benchmark (CNX 500 Index) over the last financial year. The sector positions which added to relative performance were overweight positions in materials, industrials and consumer discretionary, along with underweight positions in consumer staples and energy. The scheme also outperformed its benchmark since inception.
- DSP BLACKROCK MICRO CAP FUND: The scheme outperformed its benchmark (S&P BSE Smallcap Index) over the last financial year. The outperformance was mainly due to the scheme's stock selection. Overweight positions in consumer discretionary, financials, materials and healthcare positively contributed to relative performance. The scheme also outperformed its benchmark since inception.

- i. DSP BLACKROCK NATURAL RESOURCES AND NEW ENERGY FUND: The scheme outperformed its benchmark (Composite Benchmark comprising 35% S&P BSE Oil & Gas Index, 30% S&P BSE Metals Index, 35% MSCI World Energy Index (net and expressed in INR)) over the last financial year. #### B. FUND OF FUNDS SCHEMES

- a. DSP BLACKROCK WORLD GOLD FUND: The scheme outperformed its benchmark (FTSE Gold Mines Index (cap) (in INR terms)) over the last financial year. This outperformance by underlying fund could be attributed to the exposure to gold royalty companies, with the underlying fund's holdings in Franco-Nevada and Royal Gold among the top performers. Gold royalty companies are those which receive a percentage of gold revenues in exchange for providing financing to mining projects. As such, they are not as exposed to the same level of margin pressure that gold producers currently face. Franco-Nevada also benefitted from owning a royalty in Cobre Panama (a large open-pit development project in Panama) following the announcement of a positive project update. The scheme also outperformed its benchmark since inception. We expect the performance of gold equities to remain highly sensitive to the performance of gold bullion and the improved capital discipline and operational efficiency seen in a number of companies to help rebuild investor trust.
- b. DSP BLACKROCK WORLD ENERGY FUND: The scheme underperformed its benchmark (Composite Benchmark comprising 70% MSCI World Energy (Net); 30% MSCI World (Net)) over the last financial year. The Brent oil price plunged 49% over the period as the oil market moved into oversupply on the back of reducing oil demand expectations, supply disruptions easing and US production growth remaining robust. The underlying fund's exposure to smaller exploration and production companies was a drag on relative performance, owing to the decline in the oil price as well as some stock-specific drilling results. The underlying fund's overweight position in Encana also detracted from relative performance as the stock experienced weakness following the company's completion of a fund-raising. The scheme also underperformed its benchmark since inception. The sector remains an underweight for many investors and energy equities currently trade at a historically extreme discount to broader equity markets.
- c. DSP BLACKROCK WORLD MINING FUND: The scheme underperformed its benchmark (Euromoney Global Mining (cap) Index (in INR terms) (Erstwhile known as HSBC Global Mining (cap) Index)) over the last financial year. This underperformance can be primarily attributable to the underlying fund's iron ore exposure which detracted on the back of the commodity price weakness. Fortescue, African Minerals and Kumba Iron Ore all appear among the biggest detractors from relative performance. The underlying fund's exposure to mining companies with energy components to their business, such as Freeport McMoRan and Vedanta, also contributed to underperformance during the period as a result of this commodity price weakness. The scheme outperformed its benchmark since inception. The outlook for commodity prices remains subdued, given expectations of further US$ strength and a modest demand outlook. As the year progresses, we would expect an acceleration of closures of high-cost capacity in oversupplied markets. This bodes well for the longer term and limits the industry's ability to respond to the next upturn in demand which will ultimately see prices go higher.
- d. DSP BLACKROCK WORLD AGRICULTURE FUND: The scheme underperformed its benchmark (DAX Global Agribusiness Index) over the last financial year. The underlying fund's downstream bias aided relative returns over the period as ample supply led to significant price falls across the key crops. Downstream agricultural companies such as grain handlers and livestock producers are able to benefit from higher crop volumes and lower prices. At the stock level, the underlying fund's overweight holding in Hillshire Brands was the largest contributor to relative performance as the company performed strongly after being acquired by Tyson Foods. The scheme also underperformed its benchmark since inception. Lower crop price levels present opportunities for downstream companies, such as in the livestock and agribusiness sub-sectors. Moreover, in time the market will absorb this volume as demand increases in the face of these lower prices, such that we should return to a scenario of rising commodity prices in order to incentivise supply growth once more.
- e. DSP BLACKROCK US FLEXIBLE EQUITY FUND: The scheme underperformed its benchmark (Russell 1000 Index) over the last financial year. The underlying fund's overweight to IT was the prime detractor from performance, mainly owing to the tilt towards enterprise hardware and computer-intensive semiconductor companies. Financials were a second source of underperformance, as most interest-rate-sensitive bank holdings underperformed amid a further decline in long-term Treasury rates. The underlying funds performance was helped by exposure in the healthcare sector, especially towards managed-care companies. The scheme also underperformed its benchmark since inception. Valuations are critical to our investment decisions. Several years of strong (and largely uninterrupted) gains for US equities leave a market today that is fairly valued on an absolute basis. We are entering such a period of heightened selectivity, where value will vary by sector and individual company.
- f. DSP BLACKROCK DYNAMIC ASSET ALLOCATION FUND: The scheme underperformed its benchmark (CRISIL Balanced Fund Index) during the financial year and since inception. The scheme uses the yield gap model to allocate assets between equity and debt. Based on this model, the recommended asset allocation of the scheme (as of March 31, 2015) is as follows: Equity 10%, Debt: 90%. The equity allocation of the scheme been invested in DSP BlackRock Equity Fund and DSP BlackRock Top 100 Equity Fund and the debt allocation of the scheme has been invested in DSP BlackRock Short Term Fund, DSP BlackRock Strategic Bond Fund and DSP BlackRock Money Manager Fund. The primary reason for the scheme's underperformance versus the benchmark has been the relatively lower equity allocation maintained by the scheme in a rising equity market.
- g. DSP BLACKROCK GLOBAL ALLOCATION FUND: The Scheme was launched in August 2014. The scheme outperformed its benchmark (36% S&P 500 Index, 24% FTSE World ex-US Index, 24% BofA ML Current 5-Year US Treasury Index, 16% Citigroup Non- USD World Government Bond Index) since inception. We witnessed a period of central bank divergence as the US Federal Reserve ended its bond buying program while other central banks around the world became more accommodative. The underlying fund's overweight to Japanese equities aided in the Fund's relative returns. An overweight to the US dollar also contributed, as the currency strengthened versus both the Japanese yen and euro, mainly due to the thought that a strengthening US economy would lead to higher interest rates. The underlying fund's underweight to fixed income relative to the reference benchmark also aided in returns.

C. HYBRID SCHEMES

- a. DSP BLACKROCK BALANCED FUND: The scheme outperformed its benchmark (CRISIL Balanced Fund Index) over the last financial year. The outperformance was mainly on account of stock selection within materials, healthcare, energy and consumer staples.
- b. DSP BLACKROCK MIP FUND (Monthly income is not assured and is subject to availability of distributable surplus): The scheme outperformed its benchmark (CRISIL MIP Blended Index) during the financial year. Details of these Schemes are given in Annexure II. FMPs, FTPs and DAFs performed satisfactorily and in accordance with expectations at the time of their launches. However, their performance comparison with their respective benchmarks may vary depending on their tenor, portfolio construction, rating profile as well as sector allocation. Some of maturing FMPs & DAFs were extended for an additional two years period with consent of the unitholders.

V. FUTURE OUTLOOK

a. Bond Market

We have a positive outlook for government bonds in FY 2016. We expect the Reserve Bank of India to reduce the Repo Rate further by an additional 50 basis points in FY 2016 amid softer consumer inflation and lower commodity prices. Higher nominal yields relative to global bond yields and a stable rupee bode well for higher inflows from Foreign Portfolio Investors (FPI). We expect foreign portfolio investors (FPIs) to invest an additional $15 billion in FY 2016.

We expect the yield curve to gradually steepen in FY 16 amid prospects of a 50 basis-point cut in the Repo Rate. We also expect 5-11Y segment of the yield curve to gradually outperform the long-end (25Y+) segment of the yield curve on a risk-adjusted basis in FY 16. After declining by around 100 basis points in FY 15, we expect the benchmark 10Y government bond yield to decline by around 50 basis points in FY 16.

Corporate bond spreads have tightened in FY 15 amid significant bidding interest from the FPIs' in quality corporate and PSU debt. We expect credit spreads to remain tight in the first-half of FY 16 before widening further depending on external market conditions.

We expect yields of money market instruments to gradually decline in line with reduction in the Repo Rate. There has been a decline in the issuance of bank CD in the last few months on account of lower credit-off-take from the banking system. Commercial Paper issuance, on the other hand, has picked up in the last 4-5 months to take advantage of relatively lower borrowing rates. We expect this trend to continue for at least for the first six months of FY 2016.

Markets (BSE Sensex Index) are trading at reasonable valuations on a 1 year forward earnings basis and we believe that the steps taken by the government will have a favorable impact on the overall economy. We believe earnings growth will average closer to 18% p.a. for FY 2016 and FY 2017. While long term average growth in corporate earnings is 15%, up cycle growth rates have averaged 25% in the past.

We strongly believe that the Indian economy is on the cusp of a strong growth uptrend that could herald 7-8% GDP growth p.a. over the next 5-10 years. Pick up in corporate earnings growth, decline in interest rates and expanding return on equity (ROE) for corporate India should be the key drivers for equity market returns in the medium to long term.

VI. BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Average Assets under management of the Fund for the quarter ended March 31, 2015 stood at ₹ 39,060.12 crore. The Fund managed 30 open ended schemes and 54 closed ended schemes as on March 31, 2015.

PROXY VOTING POLICY

I. INTRODUCTION

The Corporate Governance Committee ('the Committee') of DSP BlackRock Investment Manager Pvt. Ltd. ('DSPBRIM'), Asset Management Company to DSP BlackRock Mutual Fund ('Fund'), inter alia addresses proxy voting issues on behalf of all the Schemes of the Fund. The Committee comprises of the President & Chief Investment Officer, Senior Fund Managers from the Investment team, Head of Risk, Chief Administrative Officer and the Compliance Officer. In keeping with its fiduciary responsibilities, the Committee reviews all proposals put up for voting even though they may be considered to be routine matters and exercises the votes in the best interest of its unitholders. Each proposal is considered based on the relevant facts and circumstances. From time to time, the Committee can avail/engage professional Proxy Voting advisory firms to obtain research and voting recommendations on resolutions proposed by investee companies. The Committee shall not be bound by the recommendations and shall act at its discretion keeping unitholders interest paramount. The Committee may deviate from the general policies and procedures when it determines the particular facts and circumstances that warrant such deviation to protect the interest of the unitholders.

II. PROXY VOTING POLICY

- A. Corporate Governance Matters (including changes in the state of incorporation, merger, acquisitions and other corporate restructuring and anti-takeover provisions) will be subject to careful review by the research analyst to determine whether they would be beneficial to shareholders. DSPBRIM will analyze various economic and strategic factors in making the final decision on a merger or acquisition resolution. Corporate restructuring proposals are also subject to a thorough examination on a case-by-case basis.
- B. Capital Structure These proposals relate to various requests, principally from management, for approval of amendments that would alter the capital structure of the Company, such as an increase in authorized shares. As a general matter, DSPBRIM will support requests that it believes enhance the rights of common shareholders and oppose requests that appear to be unreasonably dilutive.
- C. Compensation and Benefits We generally support proposals for employee equity compensation plans and other employee ownership plans provided our research does not indicate that approval of the plan would be against shareholder interest. These proposals concern those issues submitted to shareholders related to management compensation and employee benefits. As a general matter, we favor disclosure of a Company's compensation and benefit policies and oppose excessive compensation, but believe that compensation matters are normally best determined by a corporation's Board of Directors, rather than shareholders. Proposals to "micro-manage" a Company's compensation practices or to set arbitrary restrictions on compensation or benefits would therefore generally not be supported.
- D. Social and Corporate Social Responsibilities These are shareholder proposals addressing either corporate social and environmental policies or requesting specific reporting on these issues. We generally do not support proposals on social issues that lack a demonstrable economic benefit to the issuer and the Fund investing in such issuer. DSPBRIM seeks to make proxy voting decisions in the manner most likely to protect and promote the long term economic value of the securities held in the scheme's accounts. We intend to support economically advantageous corporate practices while leaving direct oversight of the Company management and strategy to the Board of Directors. We seek to avoid micromanagement of Companies, as we believe that the Company's Board of Directors is best positioned to represent shareholders and oversee management on shareholders behalf. Issues of corporate social and environmental responsibility are evaluated on a case-by case basis within the framework.
- E. Board of Directors DSPBRIM generally supports the Board's nominees in the election of Directors and generally supports proposals that strengthen the independence of the Board of Directors. As a general matter, we believe that a Company's Board of Directors (rather than shareholders) is most likely to have access to important, non-public information regarding a Company's business and prospects, and is therefore best-positioned to set corporate policy and oversee management. We therefore believe that the foundation of good corporate governance is the selection of responsible, qualified, independent corporate Directors who are likely to diligently represent the interest of the shareholders and oversee management of the corporation in the manner that will seek to maximize shareholder value over time. In individual cases, consideration may be given to a Director nominee's history of representing shareholder interests as a Director of the company issuing the proxy or other companies, or other factors to the extent deemed relevant by the Committee.

F. Other issues

- (a) Auditors: These proposals concern those issues submitted to shareholders related to the selection of the auditors. As a general matter, we believe that corporate auditors have a responsibility to represent the interest of shareholders and provide an independent view on the propriety of financial reporting decisions of corporate management. While we will generally defer to a corporation's choice of auditor, in individual cases, consideration may be given to an auditors' history of representing shareholder interests as auditor of the Company issuing the proxy or other Companies, to the extent deemed relevant.
- (b) Corporate Charter and By-Laws: These proposals relate to various requests for approval of amendments to a corporation's charter or by-laws. We generally vote against anti-takeover proposals and proposals that would create additional barriers and costs to corporate transactions that are likely to deliver premiums to shareholders.
- (c) Conflict of Interest and governance measures for investment in group companies of AMC and investment in companies that have subscribed to the units of any scheme of DSP BlackRock Mutual Fund (Fund): DSPBRIM is an affiliate of a large, diverse financial services firm with many affiliates and makes its best efforts to avoid conflicts of interest. However, conflict of interest can arise in certain situations. Few examples of such situations are:
  - Investee Company is a client of DSPBRIM or its affiliates
  - Investee Company is an entity participating to a material extent in the distribution of products managed or advised by DSPBRIM
  - Investee Company has subscribed to the units of any of the schemes of Fund. None of the schemes of the Fund shall invest in group companies of DSPBRIM. Further, DSPBRIM shall endeavour to resolve conflicts of interest in the interest of the unitholders. Nonetheless, even though a potential conflict of interest exists, DSPBRIM may vote in opposition to the recommendations of an investee company's management.
- (d) Internal Control Mechanism: Internal controls and checks are in place at various key steps in the process of exercise of votes as considered relevant/material by DSPBRIM. The Committee, periodically reviews the implementation of the policy and disclosure requirements.

III. REPORTS TO THE BOARD

DSPBRIM will report to the Trustee Company on proxy votes it has made on behalf of the Fund at least annually.
